About Revered Swamiji

Revered Swami Sarvapriyanandaji Maharaj has been the 8th Resident Minister and spiritual leader of the Vedanta Society of New York, USA since January 2017. He joined the Ramakrishna Math in 1994. He served as an acharya of the monastic probationers' training center at Belur Math, India. He also served in various capacities in different educational institutes of the Ramakrishna Mission in India and as the Assistant Minister of the Vedanta Society of Southern California. Swamiji was a Nagral Fellow at the Harvard Divinity School.

Revered Swamiji is a well-known speaker on Vedanta and his talks are extremely popular globally live and online. He has been a global motivational and inspirational speaker on various prestigious forums and conversations such as TEDx, SAND, Google Talk etc. He has also been invited to speak at several universities across the world, including Harvard University.

Revered Swamiji has engaged in dialogue with many eminent thinkers such as Rupert Spira, Rick Archer, David Chalmers and Sam Harris. He has played a prominent role in organizing and participating in various interfaith panels and seminars, including speaking at the World Parliament of Religions in Toronto in 2018, and at the United Nations Headquarters in New York.

Revered Swamiji is a prolific writer and speaker whose works make the insights of Advaita Vedanta accessible to modern audiences. His publications include Mahavakya: The Essence of Vedanta, Fullness & Emptiness: Vedanta and Buddhism, and From Illusion to Infinity: Discovering the Self. The more recent book Conversations on Vedanta in Practice is a curated collection of question and answer sessions with the Swami, on topics of practical importance. The wide range of his writings reflect his deep engagement with comparative philosophy and the application of Vedantic wisdom in daily life. He has also contributed essays and research papers on the Upanishads, the Bhagavad Gita, and the philosophy of consciousness.
