Pledge on Constitution of India

On the 15th of September 2023, an event of significant importance took place at SFGC. The National Service Scheme (NSS) Volunteers gathered at our college campus to take a pledge in honor of the Constitution of India. The event was graced by our esteemed Principal, Dr. SN Venkatesh, who administered the pledge to the students. The pledge taken on this day was not a mere recitation of words but a sincere commitment to uphold the ideals enshrined in the Constitution. As students gathered together, they recognized their solemn duty to protect and preserve the principles that form the foundation of the nation. This pledge served as a reminder that, as responsible citizens and NSS Volunteers, they are entrusted with the responsibility of contributing to the betterment of society. This event underscored the fact that the Constitution is not a static document; it is a living testament to shared values. Through the pledge, they affirmed their dedication to these values and to the betterment of the nation. This event serves as a reminder of the privilege and responsibility held as the torchbearers of the nation's future.

Report on Day 2: On the crucial second day of the Shramadhan camp, NSS volunteers directed their efforts towards the preservation of a Cultural Gem - the Chennakeshava Temple (Pedda Gudi), a significant monument constructed by Teppada Naganna the then Palegara or administrator of Sadali back in the year 1370. This historical landmark, standing proud for 730 years, holds invaluable cultural and architectural significance.

NSS Volunteers meticulously removed unwanted plants and waste that had accumulated over time, ensuring the preservation of the Chennakeshava Temple, a testament to our rich historical legacy. The Chennakeshava Temple, standing at the venerable age of 730 years, represents a living chronicle of our cultural heritage, reminding us of our deep-rooted history and architectural brilliance. and also The 2nd day successfully concluded the cleaning efforts in two other prominent temples within the village - the Anjaneya Temple and the Shanishwara Temple.

The endeavor to restore the Chennakeshava Temple goes beyond mere cleaning; it is a commitment to preserving the essence of our history. As NSS volunteers, our actions echo through time, ensuring that the legacy of these monuments remains intact for future generations. The meticulous cleaning of these historical temples not only rejuvenated their structural integrity but also showcased the dedication of NSS volunteers in safeguarding our cultural treasures. This initiative is a living tribute to the spirit of community service and heritage conservation.
